DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of claims 1-12 and 14 in the reply filed on 10-5-04 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 10-12 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Viland (3,815,327). Viland teaches a cylindrical chamber having a tangentially located inlet port for receiving said liquid under pressure and at an elevated temperature and capable of causing said liquid to rotate circumferentially within said chamber, whereby pressure in said liquid decreases and said vapor forms bubbles which migrate toward the central axis of said chamber (fig. 1, item 57); (b) collector means axially located in said chamber capable of collecting said vapor wherein said collector means comprises an elongated hollow tube with openings to enable said vapor to enter into said tube (fig. 1, item 55 and 65); a cylindrical chamber including (i) a tangentially located inlet port (fig. 1, item 57), and (ii) an outlet port (fig. 1, items 55 and 65); (c) a cooling means surrounding said chamber (fig. 1, item 52).

Claim Allowance

Claims 1-9 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not suggest or teach an oil refining system, particularly the combination of the heating unit in combination with the vortex condenser and the particular arrangement of the condenser to effect the vapor flow in the claimed manner.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
